Minnesota Seminar in Jungian Studies
Faculty Biographies, 2019-2020

Patricia Berry, Ph.D.
Jungian Analyst (Zurich)

Patricia is a Jungian analyst trained in Zurich. She is the author of Echo’s Subtle Body: A Contribution to Archetypal Psychology and is also the editor of Fathers and Mothers. Recent publications include “Image in Motion,” “Psychopoetics and Jung,” “A Little Light,” “Rules of Thumb,” “The Impure Salt,” “Hemingway and Hillman”. She lectures internationally and has served as president of the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts and of the New England Society of Jungian Analysts. She was James Hillman’s companion and wife for over 20 years (1968-1991).

Mary Coady-Leeper, Ph.D.
Jungian Analyst (IRSJA)

Mary Coady-Leeper has practiced psychology for over 30 years and has been a Jungian analyst since 2017. She practiced in Omaha, Nebraska until the spring of 2019 and has since moved to Loveland, CO with her husband. She has two grown daughters who live in Denver. She is especially interested in the intersection between psychology, development, and spirituality.

John Desteian, JD, LP
Jungian Analyst (Zurich)

John, a diplomate Jungian psychoanalyst, has been in private practice in Saint Paul since 1983. He is the author of Coming Together, Coming Apart (1989) and of numerous articles and book reviews, appearing in professional journals and anthologies, that concern interpersonal (object) relations, gender, creativity, and politics. Founder, chairman, and past executive director of Jungian International Training-Zurich and the Canadian Foundation for Jungian International Training-Zurich, he is past co-president of the Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists (AGAP) and a former member of the Executive Committee of the International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP).

Stephen Foster, D.I.C., Ph.D., M.A., N.C.PsyA.
Jungian Analyst (IRSJA)

Stephen is a Senior Training Analyst with the Boulder Seminar of the Inter-regional Society of Jungian Analysts who has a Ph.D. in Organic Chemistry from Imperial College, London, England. (IRSJA). He grew up in a small country village in England where he developed a deep love for nature. After moving to the U.S. he worked as an environmental consultant and for over 30 years he has worked assessing human health and environment risks and environmental cleanup. In addition, Stephen is Senior Training Analyst with the Boulder Seminar of the Inter-regional Society of Jungian Analyst and he has a private practice in Boulder Colorado. He is the author of the book Risky Business: A Jungian view of environmental disasters and the Nature Archetype, which expands on his interests in the psychology of environmental problems, nature, and archetypes related to our interactions with nature. In addition to his interest in nature, Stephen has taught on a wide-range of subjects including Alchemy, Norse Mythology and the Tarot, Fairy Tales, Norse mythology, Archetypal patterns and the Tarot. (See his website: www.BoulderJungianAnalyst.com). Stephen is a Licensed Professional Counselor and is a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis.

Peggy L. Hanson, Psy.D., L.P.
Jungian Analyst (IRSJA)

Peggy started her career as a school psychologist, followed by over twenty years of practice as a clinical psychologist. She completed her training as a Jungian analyst in 2015 and has a private practice in downtown Northfield, Minnesota. She is the currently the Coordinator of the Minnesota Seminar in Jungian Studies. Her not so secret passions include treehouses, literally and symbolically, and solitary walks in nature, with favorite retreats in Minnesota and Maine.

John Haule, Ph.D.
Jungian Analyst (Zurich)

John Ryan Haule, is a graduate of the C. G. Jung Institute, Zurich (1980) and has been a training analyst in the Boston Jung Institute since then. He is the author of some 8 volumes on Jungian topics, including Divine Madness: Archetypes of Romantic Love and The Love Cure: Therapy Erotic and Sexual. Please check his website for further information: www.jrhaule.net

Mary Ann Miller, MA., MLS, MSW, LICSW
Jungian Analyst (Zurich)

Mary Ann practices as a Jungian analyst in Minneapolis. Her prior work life includes 10th-grade English teaching and academic reference librarianship. An emotional response to fairy tales experienced while doing graduate work in children's literature set her off on a series of encounters which led to analytic training at the C. G. Jung Institute of Zurich. The consonance to be found in Jung and Zen has been an abiding interest over the years. Mary Ann was active for many years as a faculty person in the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts. A core faculty member of the MSJS, she has served as its coordinator and is currently its secretary.

Janet Muff, M.S.N., R.N.
Jungian Analyst (Los Angeles)

Janet is a senior analyst and faculty member of the C. G. Jung Institute of Los Angeles and of the Inter-Regional Society of Jungian Analysts. She has been studying the Atalanta Fugiens for more than twenty years. Through the two-way "conversation" that has developed during that time, the events in her life have brought understanding and meaning to this alchemical manuscript and, in return, the manuscript has brought understanding and meaning to her life and analytic work.

Stuart Potter, MBA
Jungian Analyst (Zurich)

Stuart maintains a private, analytical practice in Minneapolis. He is a member of the C. G. Jung Institut, Zurich – Kusnacht, and IAAP. Training was completed at CGJI – Zurich, Kusnacht, in 2017 including a thesis on Relationships. Work continues on this subject. Client work focuses on dreams and a dream group. Stuart has lectured on Jungian Typology, and MBTI, and does some consulting as a Meyers Briggs Practitioner. He is a Board Member of the Minnesota Jung Association. In addition to being on the core faculty of MSJS, he is facilitator for the case colloquium. He has degrees in Economics and Literature. Stuart lives in Saint Paul and has four grown children.